You were given the chance
You were told to stop
You wouldn't listen to reason
Now you're over the top and going down

Your words can't touch me
Your words can't break me
You had this coming for too long now

You feel like cheated
But you are defeated
And you can't admit it
You're gone too far

The blood's in your face
When you try to disgrace
My name and my honor gives you away
Cut out of my sight
And forget your spite
And I will forget that you even exist

You are losing this battle
Come on swallow your pride
Quit and run while you still can
Or I'll show you the true meaning of pain

You were given the chance
You were told to stop
You wouldn't listen to reason
Now you're over the top and going down

You are losing this battle
Come on swallow your pride
Quit and run while you still can
Or I'll show you the true meaning of pain
