"Cut, Forget"

Smile, repent
And everything's forgiven

Cut, forget
Absolution presented

The night is filled with laughter
As we raise our glasses
The vision in our eyes is blurred
While we grin in joy

The flashes of remembrance
Won't bitter the drink tonight
For ours is the glory
And forgiveness on our lips

We drink the wine
With the stains of time
But soon enough
We'll eat the crime

Prayer, lie
And everything is fine

We drink the wine
With the stains of time
But soon enough
We'll eat the crime
