"Dreams In Formaline"

Created by hands
Emerged from their flesh
They forced the life into us
Giving us something surreal

But with the gift of life
Came the curse of emotions
Trapped inside mechanic shells
And sparked into devotion

We were abused
Exploited by you
Obeying your master
While we dreamed of freedom

Drowned in silence
Close the eyes
You tamed our bodies
But fueled our minds
Chained in wires
Controlled by the signals
We found ourselves
Trapped in humanity

Lost desires
Dreams of our future
Emerged in formaline
And then we began to dream

Drowned in silence
Close the eyes
You tamed our bodies
But fueled our minds

Chained in wires
Controlled by the signals
We found ourselves
Trapped in humanity
