It all comes back to me
My past sins revealed
Until now I haven't seen
What huge mistake I did

S (he) comes to me in my all dreams
Feeding anger with my screams

It all comes back to me
Bursting through my chest
Ripping my warm heart out
Appearing like a dream

S (he) comes to me in my all dreams
Feeding anger with my screams
And I know that the nightmares
Are not the only place he resides
Because he's alive out somewhere
And he patiently awaits.

Haunting in cold realms of dream mist
Seeking his bloody revenge
Upon a man that once betrayed him
Killing him again and again.

S (he) comes to me in my all dreams
Feeding anger with my screams
