Hey they have arrived, they came before the sun.
Our brothers will stand with swords till the daylight is almost gone.

BLACK! THICK! BLACK! THICK! Viking blood!
BLACK! THICK! BLACK! THICK! Viking blood!

Lay down your arms and run for your life.
Open your eyes and watch her die. that's right!
Lay down your arms and I spare your life.
Close your eyes and feel this eternal wait.

Hey they have arrived they came with swords and arms
Our brothers will fight with us till the death unites us.!

BLACK! THICK! BLACK! THICK! Viking blood!
BLACK! THICK! BLACK! THICK! Viking blood!

Lay down your arms and run for your life.
Open your eyes and watch her die.
Lay down your arms and I spare your life.
Close your eyes and feel this eternal wait.
