I've spent 27 years chasing dream after dream
some attained, some remain
So I'll keep on in that direction
Don't try to hold me back, or route me to another track
These dreams are what I live for, Not slaving to retire
SEIZE THE DAY
Paychecks are your bliss, to me that's sick and twisted Your thoughts are of regret, all day long you are depressed
My drive in life comes from the fear of mediocrity
Not slaving with the herd, running blind and aimless
