You said the timing wasn't right, It was perfect in my eyes.
And the touch was never on, I guess I'll say you led me on.
But tell me why I couldn't find out,
The Reason I could never let this go.

So tell me how this works,
You're so addictive I am lost and insecure.
So come and end these nightmares.
I'm hanging by a thread, But holding on so tightly.
I've never been this scared, I'm letting go tonight. This is do or die.

You said the timing wasn't right, I was so lost in your eyes.
And I could never leave, So shut your eyes and set me free.
But tell me why I couldn't find out,
The Reason I could never let this go.

Tonight we fall apart,
& Tonight we fly away.
