Running through your heart still I missed the train
You have brought me down and you just don't care
Chasing you in the shadows was a broken game
Going down that rabbit hole might drive me insane

I have spent my life
In search for what's in there
And it makes me tremble
Knowing that I can't forget
Your eyes and smell
Makes me realize that...

I'm alive for you
Like a runaway
I keep chasing you cuz
I'm Alive for this
I got to live my life
And even touch the sky for you

I can't put the moonlight on a sunshine ray
Every time I see you I can feel the rain
Numbness is around to help me ease the pain
Everything is cold
Everywhere is dark
Every place you step on there's a grave on ground

I have spent my life
In search for what's in there
And it makes me tremble
Knowing that I can't forget
Your eyes and smell
Makes me realize that...

I'm alive for you
Like a runaway
I keep chasing you cuz
I'm Alive for this
I got to live my life
And even touch the sky for you
