Tell me tonight
Are you feeling desire
The fire to stay alive
Tell me a lie
That you'll stay tonight
To feel the fire inside

I can see that you have lost the faith
And I know you won't be back again

I know your face
With your lies again
And your roses killing me
I beg you stay
And wipe those tears away
With all your roses killing me

Feeling your touch
Tasting your warmth
And now I feel I'm lost
Easy to say
But I've lost the way
And now I'm so afraid

Now I'm feeling that you turn away
And it's burning all inside of me

I know your face
With your eyes again
And your roses killing me
I beg you stay
And wipe those tears away
With all your roses killing me

I know your face
With your eyes again
And your roses killing me
I beg you stay
And wipe those tears away
With all your roses killing me
