"Bet You Never Thought"

I stepped up to get stepped on
I stopped to see it that day
When the sun went down on our holiday

And there's pictures though that confirm the surprise
that's realized
When beneath the paint
You see it's all love/hate

Ain't it funny how you feel lost
Even though you found your way back home
Taste's so bittersweet, it's just the cost
Of being everyone's stepping, stepping stone

Bet you never thought [x4]

Ain't it funny how you feel lost
Even though you found your way back home
And taste so bittersweet, it's just the cost
Of being everyone's stepping, stepping stone

I'm not your stepping stone

I've got a hole in my back [x10]
I got a hole in my back that I can see out
