Since you've been made
You follow your own path
Just like a never ending line full of snags
Maybe someone gives you a hand
But mostly face it all just by yourself
Bold and proud, walk the line
And down you will never fall
Walk the line
Walk the line
When anything oppresses you,
It's time to rise again
Face also your creator
Who never cared of you
At the outside he's just a carver,
Your the owner of yourself
Bold and proud, walk the line
And down you will never fall
Walk the line
Walk the line
