Here I am in your bed again
Hanging on by a thread again
Saying things I'll regret again
Things that shouldn't be said again.

Goin' over the past and then
I'll have one more glass and then
Won't be long 'til I'm asking when
"Baby, can I come back again,
When can I come back again?"

And I keep believing that I'm leaving
Yeah, you know I can't even recall
Did we really ever love each other at all?

And I'm going, but I'm knowing
That I gotta have one more day.
'Cause it hurts if I stay
But it's worse if I stay away
I don't want to stay away, yeah.

So here I am on your floor again
Staring at your door again
I made you feel like a whore again
It's gonna be a sad morning when.

I'll tell you goodbye and then
I'll watch you cry again
Until I drop by again
Say, "Baby, can we try again?
When can we try again?" Just try again.

I keep believing that I'm leaving
Yeah, you know I can't even recall
If we really ever loved each other at all.

And I'm going, but I'm knowing
That I gotta have one more day.
'Cause it hurts if I stay
But it's worse if I stay away.

Hey.. yeah.

We're holdin' on until the good is all gone
Yeah, you know that it's not all right
But it's not all wrong
I never meant to stay so long
But I can never seem to say, "so long, yeah so long".

And I keep believing that I'm leaving
Yeah, you know I can't even recall
If we really ever loved each other at all.

Yeah, and I'm going, but I'm knowing
That I gotta have one more day
'Cause it hurts if I stay
But it's worse if I stay away.
I don't want to stay away, uhmm..
