Chorus

So don't you worry, about a thing / It's gone be all right tonight

Verse

Joy comes in the morning, believe that it does / Today will rise above what yesterday was / Knowing the best is yet to come, that sees me through the day / Cause the waves of emotion are deafened by your grace / Trials & tribulations, flesh expectations / So consumed I miss the point of my whole creation / There's so much around the corner that I yet to see / And I know you ain't seen the best of me / So I arise to my feet & arrive to the beat / Proceed to illuminate what my eyes don't see / Step outside my shoes where the sun don't sleep / Belief is all I have & it's all I'll keep/Adjust my state of mind so I can fit my dreams/ Could the world ain't prepared for what we came to bring / Seeking the next level in this game called life / Already told you in the chorus it will be alright.

Repeat Chorus

So let me grasp your attention for the left over time like you grasping my hand knowing that its alright / Have you placed under my arm inside the fire ignites so even if I'm afar / I'll be the 1st on site / Coz I'm vibing on this energy know its alright take it to another level let our minds intertwine never knowing what our interest's may proceed to find / But for now I'll concentrate on being on the same line / So for tonight let us raise our sights we stepping 1 after another bright colours beat moving with lights / We conversated I'm lucky to get a insight your personal zone I think I see my invite / Let's slow it down aint no need to rush, Take your time coz you mean so much

Just want you to know to me you mean the world glad I've had this opportunity to chill with you girl

Repeat Chorus

Lend me your ear for a minute now / put your soul at ease / leave your dramas at the door aint no need to beef / there's a place we can go, it aint gotta be hostile / maybe hard to believe, but it aint impossible / close your eyes, feel the beat in you chest step / side to side let your body do the rest yes / its' been 17 seconds recorded and set / we half way now 39 seconds left / keep stepping extend your arms now / click your fingers and put your palms out / If your eyes still closed you can open them now / we just arrived at the place I was talking about / I see the gleam in your eyes, can sense the excitement / the look on your face as your grip starts to tighten / Ive done what I came to do I've taken you there / Thank you for the minute, 19 seconds to spare /

Repeat Chorus
