Jandals to the pavement, coco urban dialects

Sky scrappers transform, to palm trees from the islands

Head phones attached with the bunga flax pack

Vibing out the fresh connection by word of mouth

The brown complexion a villajah intersection

Like flee markets forming a tropical collective
The poly-wave ain't changed we remain right here
Still roots in Grey Lynn arch dynasty atmosphere
Live by kava-bowl C-Fu within your sector
The hibiscus sent resonating to receptors
Nesian platoon infiltrating the C.B.D
The Central Bungafied dialects city M.C's

Chorus

Bridge

(Te Awanui and Che Fu)

Country girls best to do your thing,
City boys best to run them things
City girls always stand their ground,
Country boys hold it down

Verse 2

(Donald)

This me operation, this me mystik way
Fob by definition, get out me way
Aotearoa born, Kingdom MC organic urban villajah
Money back guarentee
No frills can you taste this, we keep the basics
Polysaturated flavours from the basement
I represent all klans from Auckland
Occasionally ride horse back with the horseman
We keep it hotter than to grannies in a bake off Wearing tank tops, hanging half off, matched with fluoro pink thongs
Set up base camp so we adjust to the format
Nesian epic struggle, the pinnacle service rap

Chorus

*Beat change...)

(Che fu)

Create a new avenue, show kats we can handle
Poly hiphop we keep it hot like umu rocks
Substansial knowledge of Origin definitely
Top of the list for this linguist (crazy)
Villajahs dominating mics all night
C-Fu Nesian Mystiks we go the distance
Auckland city central horified coconuts
Hooligan, fly headphones, with bass booming
