Would it make a difference if you'd be born with your mouth stuffed?
You talk so much it makes no sense at all Just plain repetitions. waht have you got to add?
An advertisement of something I'll never be a part In the name of shut up and play
A culture of apathy
Fuck it, not afraid to say Fuck it you won't save the day Fuck it this must come really hard Fuck it please tear us apart Your interpretation of a so called open mind means nothing more but blind acceptance of a goal justifying the means, your attitude mistaken for an opinion.
To me you're nothing but scared
