There's no walk of shame
No disgrace, no blame to proclaim
Feel the sun grace your face
Millions of people wanna take my place

All eyes on me
As I'm cruising towards my destiny
All eyes on me
Whilst I'm dodging life's atrocious debris
All eyes on me

Have you ever had a day when you feel invincible?
Looking at others knowing you'll never get old
Ride a bullet to work then tell them to fuck off
Go into his office said "I fucked your daughter, boss"
Leave through the front doors... head held high
Knowing all that's left to do today is touch the sky
And as you reach for the sky decide to aim for the stars
Lose your drawers in fancy cars, around the guitars

(Guitar solo)

All eyes on me
As I'm cruising towards my destiny
All eyes on me
Whilst I'm dodging life's atrocious debris
All eyes on me

There's no walk of shame
No disgrace, no blame to proclaim

All eyes on me
As I'm cruising towards my destiny
All eyes on me
Whilst I'm dodging life's atrocious debris
All eyes on me

(All eyes on me)
