Spin a wheel, behind the mark
Another deal in the dark
In the red and in the gray
Dangerous with a kiss

On a take at the zoo
On a make, sniffing glue
In a bind, in your mind
Runaway, you're okay

Then you crack

Take a pill, wide awake
Standing still on the street
Cut the cord, you're in debt
You're so bored, covered in sweat

Kicking in with a grin
Going out with a bang
Huffing fumes, walk the line
Luftballons in my spine

Then you crack

Love and money
Well spent
Love and money
Well spent

And then you crack
