I'm so tired of just starring at you
Telling me I'm not enough for you
You are so young you can't beat it alone
I'm so tired I'm so fuck up with you
You keep saying I won't gonna make Stop dreaming 'bout my world wide fame
You don't know that I 'll sacrifice for my dreams everything I have in life

Chorus:

Look that flashes cauting all my soul
Can you see me at the television?
All the people sing along my songs
And all these grammys
Can't caunt them anymore x2
What did u say looking rolling stone?
Whatching me at my concerts and my shows
Have you ever though I could achieve
Everything you fail and I succed
Now the karma it's paying all for you
Now the destiny it's only fucking you
Now the karma it's paying all for you
Now the destiny it's only fucking you

(CHORUS)
