Sad day for Sheila
With her jellyfish smile
Contemplating all the choices she made

I have to admit
When she decided she would leave
You couldn't wipe the smile off of my face

She finally found
Her way home
To find that all she'd left is gone

Pictures of herself
On the walls wearing nothing
I guess just to try to fit in

You have to agree
She was all sixes and sevens
But that doesn't ever add up to ten

She finally found
Her way home
To find that all she'd left is gone

You know the crazy bith
Would never back down an inch
Or admit that she would cheat on her man

The world was getting around
It was time to leave town
She took a hint and unexpectedly ran

She finally found
Her way home
To find that all she'd left is gone

She finally found
Her way home
To find that all she'd left is gone

She went home
It's gone

It's gone
