We're gonna kill some fuckin!
Oh!

You know it's hard to stay alive
We wait for the final moment
Trying to do right and get down on my knees Straight!
Wisdom of a fool won't set you free right now

We are a killing machine, we can make you die so easy
It's not too hard, this is a small game to me
We will play it over and over again
Where are you going now? there is no need to run away
Give up!

A sense of madness
A fragrance of bleeding tears
You're giving the last words of a final day
(Light a match just to watch it you burn, it's just like me
to fool myself again)
We'll shut your mouth right to the earth
(Light a match just to watch it you burn, it's just like me
to fool myself again)

A different place but too scared to you
A different place but too scared to you
I hear a children's screams, this is a silly dream
I hear a children's screams, oh my god!

Cause I see it in your anger
As the morning birds move in It's ringing a stranger siren
That's your sorrowness that falls behind

We are a killing machine, we can make you die so easy
(Die so easy)
It's not too hard, this is a small game to me
We will play it over and over again
(Over again)
Where are you going? there is no need to run away
You know it's hard to stay alive
We wait for the final moment

A sense of madness
A fragrance of bleeding tears
You're giving the last words of a final day
(Light a match just to watch it you burn, it's just like me
to fool myself again)
We'll shut your mouth right to the earth
(Light a match just to watch it you burn, it's just like me
to fool myself again)

Strike!
We are a killing machine, we can make you die so easy
We will play it over and over again
Where are you going now? there is no need to run away
Give up!

We are a killing machine, we can make you die so easy
We are a killing machine, we can make you die so easy
