i got slipped some brooklyn blood on my way to go meet someone i took the five, i went low to get away before i fade iâ€™ve got the symptoms itâ€™s begun, itâ€™s six am and the tonicâ€™s won when i reach the surface iâ€™ll give in. iâ€™m bleeding brooklyn

iâ€™m bleeding brooklyn from the first time we meet to when the floor hits my feet

i drown in my dreams. this city is a memory itâ€™s six am as moon light fades, the spread of blood is all the rage

she wakes up in different skin, in different arms then where her dreams had been but here on the edge of memory, from fate and love to flesh and blood thereâ€™s still the stars in her eyes and a love that never died

all these things are just a memory one last kiss before the tragedy is there time for just one more now thereâ€™s blood on the dance floor

weâ€™re bleeding brooklyn
weâ€™re bleeding brooklyn
weâ€™re bleeding brooklyn
weâ€™re bleeding brooklyn
weâ€™re bleeding brooklyn
weâ€™re bleeding brooklyn
weâ€™re bleeding brooklyn
