You've got a beautiful temper
But it gets
The best of you, best of you
But you know your mouth
Is on the edge of a secret
And you make adjustments for cover
But you want to
See it through, see it through
And though you're standing
All alone now, it's your fault

Your heart is beating faster
And this isn't what you want

Wake me up
You know I can't stand this
I guess I'll try to find a way
To try to forget it
Get over this
Before you

You say thanks for the notion
And even know that
This is true, this is true
It's funny how I always
Hear you say that you're okay
I guess you're keeping it level
I haven't heard from you, heard from you
You're probably living in the past
But it won't last
It won't last

Wake me up
You know I can't stand this
I guess I'll try to find a way
To try to forget it
Get over this
Before you
Up and run away
This is pathetic
You stand uptight
I know you can't help it

Get over this
Control yourself
You're lost and been
Walking forever

Something is wrong (something is wrong)
What is this voice inside my head?
How can it be?
When all of these things
Are falling in line?

Wake me up
Wake me up
This is inside your mind

Wake me up
You know I can't stand this
Wake me up
Just try to forget it
Get over this
Control yourself
You're lost and been
Walking forever

Trust me
You
