

Emperors Of Destruction

"An Isolation"

Visit "An Isolation" on MotoLyrics.com

I watch from the farthest distance
Far from the realms of social lives
I dare not to enter this well worn trail
A harsh isolation I always endure

There is no path to enter
To know what a friendship is
No steps are taken to follow that path
An isolation is what belongs to me

Experience in this realm is futile
Inexperience that can create a downfall
This reality exposes a severe weakness
Any social attempt is one more failure

There is no path to enter
To know what a friendship is
No steps are taken to follow it
An isolation is what belongs to me
