Self Conversion to the evils
Creating a personal war that leads to failure
Revitalizing the silent evils within
Unmasking what evil craves
Destroying oneself's wall of morals

The mind is leading to self failures
The mind is creating it's evils
The mind is leading is to self failures
But then the evil will reign

When the evils erodes, one shall suffer
Taking lives to neutralize others anger
Evil is strong that can't washed out like others
Failure lead one's different universes
To claim themselves and never join

The mind is leading to self failures
Revitalizing the silent within
Unmasking what evil craves
Destroying one self's of morals

Is what evil wants
And to get it to suffer first then live
