Suffering is within me
Optimism down into the bowels
The endless demands lead me to decay
Happiness was something I knew
But now I'm blind as it's darkness
And I shall immortally suffer

The elixir is somewhere
Waiting to be crushed by the deadly forces
Darkened minds evolve
The mind has been mortally wounded

Waiting for the next day to find happiness
Waiting for the next day to fight sadness
It all comes down to the mind
The all powerful refuses to surrender
The light at the end tunnel is now gone

The elixir is somewhere
Waiting to be crushed by the deadly forces
Darkened minds evolves
The mind has been mortally wounded

This suffering shall always continue
Depletes the hope which is needed to live
There is no elixir against this evil
Darkness creates this suffering
So one may suffer eternally

The elixir is somewhere
Waiting to be crushed by the deadly forces
Darkened minds evolves
