

Emperors Of Destruction

"No One Can Feel It"

No breath of this life
There's no way to get back on the former life
But there's a rare glimpse of hell
Without the pain and vengeance
One may not live

Pain is the thirst of vengeance
No one can feel it
No one can feel it
The limits of this pain are none

Peace has not found a way through the trail of pain
Battles of hope cannot end this pain
The only power has been destroyed
Never to return

Pain is the thirst of vengeance
No one can feel it
No one can feel it
The limits of this pain are none

Hope cannot hampered
It must never be destroyed
