With revolution we shall regain our rights
Destory a conservative president's legacy
Destroy every law that has killed our rights
So future generations may not suffer

In a time of political damage
A rebel's cause is pure and noble
We will cause the death of tyranny
Relentless minds may come forth
To end our suffering masked as laws
With heavenly determination we will fight them

A denomic presence is in every soul
That proposes reductions in our rights
Wither a storm that will inspire minds
For soon a future of eternal freedom reigns

In a time of political damage
A rebel's cause is pure and noble
We will cause the death of tyranny
Relentless minds may come forth
To end our suffering masked as laws
With heavenly determination we will fight them

To Conservatives (silence)
I will now engage in a noble war
And soon untold millions will fight
This revolution will restore our rights

In a time of political damage
A rebel's cause pure and noble
We will cause the death of tyranny
Relentless minds may come forth
To end our suffering masked as laws
With heavenly determination we will fight them
