The goal of corruption is to suppress
The weakness that people hold inside
Destroying all powers
That people know
Ravishing the hatred inside

Suppression must now die
Years are passing by
It's getting worse now
So let it brew

Many things haven't heard
Or have they been leaked
By the emperors of democracy
While Corruption suppresses

Suppression must now die
Years are passing by
It's getting worse now
So let it brew

Modern society masks the weakness
That still reign and forever reign
Uncontrolled by the masking of the society
The Great Masking has been solid
It will conquer forever
