"The Stalement Of Conflict"

Leave the tent of security into the darkness
A path to safety is selective with blood
Gunfire overpowers ambition for safety
Misery is the way of life

Different groups of people have created
The Stalement of Conflict
Surviving is the daily mission

The days before were filled with uncertainty
In which your head would become tangled in war
But now you must survive to live more misery
Hope is distant and again selective

Different groups of people have created
The Stalement of Conflict
Surviving is the daily mission

Ammunition to shatter your security
A tent is for you to have some humanity

Differrent groups of people have created
The Stalement of Conflict
Surviving is the daily mission
