(Intro)

Give me a reason to believe you

Give me a reason to believe a word you say

And it's not like me to care

But it's not like you to be wearing underwear

And that's ok

I can do with or without you

I could leave today

I could leave today

(Pre-chorus)

Because, believe me

You're only my girlfriend for the day

And I've been drinking and I can't see straight

(Chorus)

I don't remember the night we met

I don't remember the things I said

If I said that it was love

I'll have to say I lied

Cause I don't fall in love

I fall in like

(Verse)

When you woke up with my t-shirt on

Was when I woke up wondering where my shirt had gone (where the hell is my shirt?)

And I bet that you love the attention

You mistook love for drunken affection

(Pre-Chorus)

Because, believe me

You're only my girlfriend for the day

And I've been drinking and I can't see straight
(Chorus)

I don't remember the night we met

I don't remember the things I said

If I said that it was love

I'll have to say I lied

Cause I don't fall in love

I fall in like

(Bridge)

And I'll say that I don't fall in love

And I'll say it isn't real

But she made me believe in something she has yet to feel

Now I'm helping her upstairs

Cause she can barely stand

But she holds my hand and I want this so bad

She holds my hand and I want us so bad

But after tonight...

She won't remember the night we met

She won't remember the things she said

If she said that it was love

I'm guessing that she lied

Cause she never falls (she never falls)

(Chorus/Outro)

She won't remember the night we met

She won't remember the things she said

If she said that it was love

I'm guessing that she lied

Cause she never falls in love

She only falls in like
