(Verse 1)

Its been going on days now

And Iâ€™m still falling over every word you say now

And thereâ€™s a car outside with your bags inside

And pretty soon youâ€™ll say goodbye

Well I know that I canâ€™t stop you

No matter just how bad I want to

And Iâ€™m so sure that Iâ€™ll survive

In this ghost town here without you

(Chorus)

Baby turn around

Thereâ€™s someone you forgot

When you packed your bags and left town tonight

And Iâ€™m losing sleep

I need you here with me

(Verse 2)

Iâ€™ve been sitting on my door step waiting (waiting)

And I canâ€™t help but to playback

All the words that youâ€™ve been saying

You said you needed to leave for good

And somehow I thought you never would

Now you're gone and this is real

Nothing can change the way you feel

(The way you feel)

And it's hard to admit but I still can't get over it

(The way you feel)

There's a photo of us and I can't let go of it

(Chorus)

Baby turn around

There's someone you forgot

When you packed your bags and left town tonight

And I'm losing sleep

I need you here with me

When the morning comes

I'll try my best to get up

But I can barely breathe

Without you here with me

(Bridge)

WHOA

So when you're walking away from me

I hope you never find a bedroom where you'd rather be

And when you're looking back on memories

I hope I can be the boy that made it hard to breathe

And when I walking on the same old streets

I'm only thinking of the selfish boys you'll meet

And when they're singing along baby

I got 'em moving to the rhythm beneath my feet

(Chorus)

Baby turn around

There's someone you forgot

When you packed your bags and left town tonight

And I'm losing sleep

I need you here with me

When the morning comes

I'll try my best to get up
