Here's my grandpa's old Gibson
And a girl of no importance
A shot of whiskey sitting on the bar
Yeah I used to give a damn, I used to try real hard But I'll give in tonight, chances are

[Chorus]
One foot on the narrow way
And one foot on the ledge
Sifting through the devil's lies
From what the good book says
If I'm goin' any where
I'll probably go too far
Probably away from you
Chances are, chances are

There's a lonely corner waiting
To seats left for playing
I'll tell her everything she wants to hear

I'm not worse love this making
I'm better at the breakin'
A guy like me knows how to disappear

[Chorus]
One foot on the narrow way , and one foot on the ledge
Sifting through the devil's lies, from what the good
book says
If I'm goin' any where
I'll probably go too far
Probably away from you
Chances are, chances are

Hold me like I mean it
Say 'til you believe it
And we'll see if we can fill an empty heart
But I won't tell you what the chances are

[Chorus]
One foot on the narrow way , and one foot on the ledge
Sifting through the devil's lies, from what the good
book says

If I'm goin' any where
I'll probably go too far
Probably away from you
