Red woman stay away from me
Red woman won't you let me be
With eyes that are blue like a diamond
Yeah my girl would send you home crying

Keep me by your side
Because I need you in my life
To keep me in the right when she comes and walks by
And try's to take me

Red woman stay away from me
Red woman won't you let me be
Because I know that I don't need your loving
Your fire is burning me up

Keep me by your side
Because I need you in my life
To keep me in the right when she comes and walks by
But never takes me
