Made up my mind I'm going to be a believer
It's just a sign of times
Bowing down to the great deceiver
You don't see who they are You're only meant to see the things that they feed you
Runaway in the dark from the great deceiver

You and me boy you know we're two of a kind
It's hard to see the truth sometimes

Taking my time
I think I going to beleive it
It's just a sign of times
Bowing down to the great deceiver
You know they know who you are
And they'll use you just as long as they need you
Runaway in the dark from the great deceiver

Time goes by
I think I'm starting to see it
Tell me it'll be alright
And we won't have to bow to be free men
You know they know who you are
And they'll use you just as long as they need you
Boy you must be blind bowing down to the great deceiver
