Could I give
Could I steal
If I was sorry they would please let me kneel

I would wait
I would walk
I would speak for you would not even to talk

But it's hard to be on the table

Could I steal
Would I walk
Could I leave you and they'd see where you'd run

Would I be
Would I know
If I'm leaving darling please let me go

Cause it's hard to be young and able
I stay hard to be young and stable

Would I wait
Would I run
I don't try to but I've seen that you've known

And I sleep
Where've I gone
And I know it's nothing far for the lost

And it's hard to be young and able
