Oh, ho, and it seems to me
Everything is apple trees
Sour fruit becomes sweet
After long-run spring

She makes me feel like I'm 22 again
The way I felt last year
I don't mind if she borrows my raincoat
Long as she stays here

In time paper bags rip in half
Slips/flip gently to the floor
I'm striking keys through dirty ribbons
Words spill like gold

She makes me feel like I'm 22 again
The way I felt last year
And I don't mind if she borrows my records
Long as she stays here

I masked the fact perfectly
There's a phantom knockin' at my door
Treat or trick, I won't let him in
Cause dogs creak in the yard

She makes me feel like I'm 22 again
The way I felt last year
And I don't mind if she borrows my guitar
As long as she stays here
