It looks like you're up pretty high
Please be careful up there
I can see with my own eyes
I'm really a good balancer
I practice walking on curbsides
That run along my street
Just so I could walk this line
By the power of my own two feet

And if in the morning you rolled me over
And if in the morning you rolled me over
And if in the morning you rolled me over
Would I land tails or heads?

Cause all those things that I do
When no one's 'round to see
When I'm under the gun
It's all those things I confess to be
It's taken years to perfect this act
Now the acting comes so naturally
There's still a line that's undefined
Between maybe just an actually

And if in the morning you rolled me over
And if in the morning you rolled me over
And if in the morning you rolled me over
Would I land tails or heads?

Said he'd carry me home
Let me stay in his form
