music & lyrics by Annika Vitolo, (c) 2010

I can't move, I can't move. Will you be the step I take
I got no air, I got no air. Will you be the breath I take

Will you be my drug, will you be the one
Will you be my little fix
Can you make me high, would you please be my
Would you be my little fix

I can't speak, I can't speak. Will you be the words I say
I'm on my knees, I'm on my knees
Will you let me walk away

When it hurts so good is it understood
That you'll be my little fix
When the day is done and the cravings come
Will you be my little fix

Are you gonna fix me. Are you gonna fix me?
Are you gonna fix me. Are you gonna fix me?
You're running through, you're running through my veins
Keep running through, keep running through my veins
You're running through, you're running through my
veins
You're making track marks in my heart
You're leaving scars.....

I can't move, I can't move. Will you be the step I take
I got no air, I got no air. Will you be the breath I take

When it hurts so good is it understood
that you'll be my little fix
When the day is done and the cravings come
Will you be my little fix

Are you gonna fix me. Are you gonna fix me?
Are you gonna fix me. Are you gonna fix me?

Are you gonna fix me.....
