(feat. Lexi Valentine of Magneta Lane)

Bless your heart
And your tired eyes
And try to keep your strength
Your life bleeds like the red I wore
On my lips as skin turned pale

Take this breath
For the lives we waste
For the hollow souls we own
Give me hope
For a restless heart

Where we'll go no one will follow, close

I swear to god I only fall apart
I swear to god I only fall apart

You've waited all your life
To take this from my blood

Indebted to you, indebted to me
Indebted to god until we bleed

This life will last
