I'm Broken
(Broken beautiful)
Broken
(Broken beautiful)
You may have broke me down
I'm broken
(Broken Beautiful)
I'm broken
(Broken Beautiful)
You broke me, but I'm broken beautiful

I know that I'm not innocent
And you had your reasons,
But I need know
This is how
I never pictured this to go

It took so long to build me up
To bring the world in site
I'm like a burning star in the night
That's hidden by the light
So take your time
Enjoying life
And living in the dark
I've got a new perspective
I'm looking up
At a beautiful start

I'm Broken
I'm Broken
You may have broke me down
I'm broken
I'm broken
You broke me but I'm broken beautiful

I lost who I am in believing
In everyone but me
And even when I screamed to you
You just couldn't see

It took so long to build me up
To bring the world in site

I'm like a burning star in the night
That's hidden by the light
So take your time
Enjoying life
And living in the dark
I've got a new perspective
I'm looking up
At a beautiful start

I'm Broken
I'm Broken
You may have broke me down
I'm broken
I'm broken
You broke me but I'm broken beautiful

Why'd you go and lose your head
(You went and gone, and lost your head)
When Ya know I tried to stay
Yeah I did...
Yeah I did...

I'm Broken
I'm Broken
You may have broke me down
I'm broken
I'm broken
You broke me but I'm broken beautiful

I'm Broken
I'm Broken
You may have broke me down
I'm broken
I'm broken
You broke me but I'm broken beautiful
