My baby is six feet underground
It's so late at night and no one's around
I can't believe I'm here
Oh, but you made it clear
That I could be with you forever

It all started one night
You came through my window
I could feel the cold air on my skin
You said, "I got a plan to get us out of here"
And I'd do anything you said

Come and unbury me
Come and dig me up
I got an offer I know you won't refuse
Cause your loving is just so right
and forever I can spend my nights with you

My hands are dirty and the sweat was pouring down

My heart was beating so fast you could hear it pound
Oh, but when you grabbed my hand
I finally understand
That this would be the last time I'd see the sun

Then I said to him
Come and unbury me
Come and dig me up
You got an offer you know I wouldn't refuse
Cause your loving is just so right
and forever I can spend my nights with you

Come and unbury me
Come and dig me up
I got an offer I know you won't refuse
Cause your loving is just so right
and forever I can spend my nights with you
