how can you leave me here to waste away, in this house of death to many times i trusted you and it ends today this will all come crashing down on you and in the end, what have you won i think it's obvious its a draw i think we should just move along i'm done losing sleep over this i can't forget, what you've done to make your self feel ecstasy and was it worth it just to see her like this on the verge of death

what have you accomplished in this life you've lived
and in the end, what have you won
what have you accomplished in this life you've lived

Fuck you, and your stupid alibi your bullshit can't harm me anymore your lack of shame shows your true colours the colours that blind me for ever when will you learn that this is not the way not the way you think it really is

when will you learn that this is not the way

and in the end, what have you won
and in the end, what have you won
and in the end, what have you won
