Sometimes life seems bigger than it is
It's up to you to rearrange your views
And we all know something better exists
You just don't see it from the blues
(But you know)

There's no use in leaving all alone
I need you, I need you
Destination's unknown
I need you, I need you

Everyone's got their own problems to deal with
And most of them find a way
Answers aren't given up like gifts
You've got to work them away
(But you know)

There's no use in leaving all alone
I need you, I need you
Destination's unknown
I need you, I need you

All this hate and despair blinding me
So many times that I've been feeling through my veins
But there's no devil that is too strong to be slayed
It's about time that we start breaking our chains

So when you'll cross the final exit on your road
Will you take it?
Or will you just feel stupid to have slowed
I know for sure that there's a sunnier exit

So pump the gas and head on towards some better skies
Your life means so much more
Look straight ahead there is a brighter sun that rises
It's yours, yours to explore

Answers aren't given up like gifts
You've got to work them away
(But you know)

There's no use in leaving all alone
I need you, I need you
The destination's unknown
I need you, I need you

I need you [2x]
