Lets go all the way
Forget about all the things we hate
About the things we never say
I anticipate any chance to get away and alleviate the pain

Fun while it lasted but i still want more Traces of you i cant ignore
So full of guilt but never feeling remorse

Lets go all the way
Forget about all the things we hate
About the things we never say
I anticipate any chance to get away and alleviate the
pain

That time we lied it seemed so right
Hotel room, it rained all night
Never cared if we'd get caught

Lets go all the way
Forget about all the things we hate
About the things we never say
I anticipate any chance to get away and alleviate the
pain

Tequila shots, i love that laugh
And those guilty eyes
Ive already undressed you with mine
I can't take it anymore
Clothes on the floor loud violent screams
Assimilate ourselves from everything

Lets go all the way
Forget about all the things we hate
About the things we never say
I anticipate any chance to get away and alleviate the
pain,
alleviate the pain, alleviate the pain!
