How long will it take
How long 'til this aching goes away
How long should i stay
How long should i keep myself awake
Where were you were you in the end
Where were you when i said

I'm a liar just like you and that's okay
I'm guilty

There's nothing left to see
There's nothing left to be
It's all been done
There's nothing left for you
There's nothing left for me
It's all been done
There's no where left to hide
There's no where left to run
And it's all gone
It's all gone

And i...
I'm a liar just like you and that's okay
And i...
I'm guilty just like everyone today
And i...
I'm a liar just like you and that's okay
I'm guilty just like everyone

Holding onto all this history
Nothing's new it's all been ending
Over over over again
Over over over again
Holding onto all this history
Nothing's new it's all been ending
Over over over and again

And i...
I'm a liar just like you and that's okay
And i...
I'm guilty just like everyone today
