it's time
yes time has told the answers in a bottle and it's basking there alone

one time we were free to speak our mind how can you say you're happy? i can't even say I'm fine...

[Chorus:]
whoa, what was once a good time had together now it's no fun
(i can't go on)
whoa, and i thought that this could last forever,
i can't go on...
(now it's no fun)

reflect, upon my intellect my hindsites 20-20 and there's no time for regret thin walls, connecting empty holes they've lasted until now and they're finally breaking down

[Chorus]

don't forget, no regret,
don't forget, no regret,

[Chorus]

no regrets [x3]
and i can't go on
