

Never Heard Of It "Satisfied"

another fight with time i couldn't sleep my mind so deep in thought i hide from all the things i hate to be and once again i was up all night the light so bright came right into my eyes trying to fight to stay tightly closed but now it's too late and now it's too late
the light so bright came right into my eyes

although you lied
i'm satisfied
although you say
things are better off this way
and though you know
part of us has died
i can't complain
i can't complain
i'm satisfied

the end may justify the means reality may shatter dreams i see a smile
behind your tears
stop running from your fears open your eyes open your ears you'll change in the end

although you lied
i'm satisfied
although you say
and though you know
part of us has died
i can't complain
i can't complain
i'm satisfied

you were the one i loved before you are the one i can't ignore you were the one that said to me

you are the one i've waited for
you were the one that said to me

although you lied
i'm satisfied
although you say
i can't complain
i'm satisfied
