she's been acting like a dick
and i've been a bitch
still i think everything will be alright

i've always tried to do my best now i wait in line to try and pass the test i've always heard this time would come i'd throw my insecurities away who cares about security

just take a small step back don't trip
i'm sick of it
i'm keeping everything that's mine

you're way uptight life's not that bad i guess you just forgot about the love we had different when we both had none now you try to take my shit and run i transferred all my funds

don't trip
i'm sick of it
i'm keeping everything that's mine
