Some things wrong now you're barely breathing
Can't stop now knowing you will be there

Maybe I'll sit this one out, maybe I'm just human
But the stories changing now she said
Some things going on he said
Shouldn't take too long
She sees the lies, his eyes, before the meaning

Slow me down, tell me when you're leaving
Be around and tell me what you're thinking
Maybe I'll take you away

Maybe I'll sit this one out, maybe I'm just human
But the stories changing now she said
Some things going on he said
Shouldn't take too long
She sees the lies, his eyes, before the meaning

Maybe I'll sit this one out, maybe I'm just human
But the stories changing now she said
Some things going on he said
Shouldn't take too long
She sees the lies, his eyes, before the meaning

She said some things going on
He said shouldn't take too long
She sees the lies, his eyes, before the meaning
