

Never Heard Of It "The Escape"

My pockets are full and they're weighing me down
And i'm getting frustrated
I hear you scream without hearing a sound
My eyes are diolated
I feel like running now
I feel like hiding now
I feel like getting away to a far away place
But i don't know how
It's not fun now
And i want to scream
But i can't seem to talk
Can't seem to figure out what it is about the way that i feel
But i want to feel this way again
And i wanna go back
To where i just came from
Don't want to be in this place where i am
And i want to go back, back, back
I feel like running now
I feel like hiding now
But i don't know how
It's not fun now
